Membership: You are still able to renew your 2023 dues over the next few weeks helping to increasing our final standing at National.
Post 6 Building and grounds: Our post home is starting to look like new. You will be amazed when you see what has been done. Note on the events calendar that Commander Terri has designed August 30th as 'Post Clean Up Day'. Bring your muscle power, are you lacking in power, monetary donations will assist with supplies. Let the post know if you can attend.
Conference: Please email or call the post if you are going to Department Conference, I will need your names by August 18th and include if you are TAL, SAL or ALR.

American Legion Auxiliary

Conference: Pat will send out an email for the conference, please reply to that email if you plan to attend. Registration is $35.00 and get that to me by August 18th, as well. Membership: You can still renew for 2023 without losing your continuous years.

Sons of the American Legion

Meetings will resume in September SQD 6 Commander Leon Lott invites all able to attend the meetings and join in working with youth! Meetings are the 3rd Wednesday of the month at 7:00 am.

American Legion Riders

Anniversary: July 30th, 2010, Chapter 6 American Legion Riders were officially formed and recognized by The American Legion Department of South Carolina as a Chapter of the ALRSC. 13 years of riding for God and County for the support of our nation's Veterans and their families.
